

Performance Psychologist

Location: Trent Bridge Nottingham, NG2 6AG

Salary: Dependant on experience

Job Type: Part Time contract 0.6 FTE

Trent Bridge, the home of The Blaze, is looking to recruit a Performance Psychologist to work with our elite female cricketers.

This is an exciting time to join The Blaze as they develop and grow at a cricket ground of global repute first established in 1838. The Blaze are one of eight professional women's teams, in England & Wales (ECB), taking part in the Metro Bank 50-over and Blast T20 Competitions.

The Blaze are inviting applications for an experienced and skilled performance psychologist to join the team. This role provides a fantastic opportunity to provide psychology support to Blaze contracted players. Reporting to the Head of Sport Science & Medicine you will plan and deliver a robust performance psychology strategy for The Blaze that meets the need of the systems, team and players.

The successful applicant will be an experienced performance psychologist who is able to demonstrate how they have implemented a psychological strategy that has supported the development of elite athletes. Registration with the HCPC is essential.

In addition, the successful candidate will be required to undergo enhanced disclosure checks with the Disclosure and Barring Service, and have a clean driving licence.
